Ever Gail Carson Levine

Ever can teach you to write numbers in cuneiform, the first known writing system in the world. The Mesopotamians were marvelous mathematicians. Our sixty seconds in a minute and sixty minutes in an hour originated with them. They were good plumbers too. Their sewage systems surpassed anything in medieval Europe thousands of years later. But medicine was not so good, which plays into the plot of Ever.

Ever by Gail Carson Levine

While Ever is a good book it fails to entrance me the way Gail Carson Levine's previous books have. There are two things that are done extremely well in Ever . This is the world-building and the plot .
