During the writing of the book, Dan and I were in regular contact, via e-mail and phone to discuss various plot points, characters and to natter about the series as a whole. All of this was immensely helpful and I know that False Gods would be the poorer without the lines of communication remaining open during its writing.

Book Review: False Gods by Graham McNeill | Mboten

Graham McNeill's work is always a joy to read, and Toby Longworth's dedication to characterization brings this story of treachery and sinister plots to vibrant life. All praise goes to both writer and actor, both of whom have brought the very apex of their skill forth, and have poured it into this novel.
