Farewell To The Master Ebook

Farewell to the Master is a tale that has one major shortcoming in the technological arena, but it makes an intriguing companion to the 1951 film. The differences between the story and its film version does make for an interesting comparison. In this reviewer's opinion, the ending of the story is much superior to the 1951 film.

"Farewell to the Master"
Reviewed The best way to characterize this is to say it is not your grandfather's "The Day the Earth Stood Still", but it is equally as good and more ominous than the movie. Excellent story and good narration. I would like to see someone like J. J. Abrams table an unaltered version of this as a movie.
