Best Answer: My favorite book...wow, that's actually really hard. I am a rather prolific reader of mostly classic books (I avoid as much of the new modern crap as possible) and I've read a huge amount of amazing books. Overall, I'd have to say that Peter Pan, by J.M Barrie is my all-around favorite book. I ...

My old favorite is gone with the wind by margaret mitchell. Reading this you would think that my favorite genre is romance, but I tend to read a lot of mysteries, and psychological thriller type stuff. My favorite books growing up were the wayside school books by louis sacher, and anything by judy blume.

I would say that "Foundation" by Issac Assimov is up there as favorite Sci-Fi novel. I read for enjoyment and relaxation, so after exhausting most Sci-Fi, I now read a lot of Westerns. In that Genre you cannot beat "The Sacketts" or anything else by Louis Lamour. But if I had to pick one book as my favorite it would be "The Firm" by John Grisham.

First read this book waaaay back in 6th grade, but it became such an all-time-favorite that I have since read it countless times....I actually lost count of how many times I have reread it since 6th grade. The latest movie is a bit different from the book, so I was kind of disappointed when I watched it with my daughter.
