18 Since Prescott supposedly started this piece in 1826-7, and the first edition was printed in 1837 by the American Stationers' Company, the book took almost ten years to complete (American Stationers' Company 1837). Prescott did this while being almost completely blind with the help of assistants and a writing device for the visually impaired called a noctograph (Ticknor 1863).

Prescott's writing is brilliant and I was swept up in their story from the first few pages that I read. Not many authors can do that for me. I was warned that tissues were required when I started reading this book and I am giving everyone the same warning but I beg you, please do not let it put you off reading this awesome book.
