Sometimes, it seems that everything goes wrong, despite our best efforts to make things right. We can do everything in our power to make something work, but life might have different plans. Many of us feel as though we have no control over our lives, and while that might hold some truth to some extent, we do have the power to control how we react to situations.

This seagull (like all the rest of us) is powered by solar energy. It's food is a form of stored solar energy. For a seagull, the energy could come originally from phytoplankton (see energy pyramids) that was eaten by a fish that died and was eaten by a crab that was then eaten by the seagull. Or the energy could have come originally from grass that was eaten by a cow that was made into a ...
