Final Days Gary Gibson

Final Days by Gary Gibson is a Science Fiction/Space Opera that has plenty of room to grow. I hate not loving this book. Do not get me wrong I enjoyed many aspects of Final Days, however, plot felt confusing. In many parts, I needed to reread sections just to understand what was happening, at times as far back as a few chapters.

Final Days is one of my favorite Gary Gibson novels. Essentially a hard sci-fi apocalypse novel. That's the shell wrapped around the story. There's a time travel/paradox plot, an entirely different political plot, characters that weave back and forth between those plots. The character development, dialogue, and action are intense but well paced.

Final Days is my first experience of Gary Gibson's novels but it most certainly won't be the last. The story is utterly gripping. There are multiple characters, a few red herrings, and elements that only make sense as the novel continues, and these knot together to create a fascinating, exciting and poignant depiction of Earth's final days.
