1 Computing with Language: Texts and Words. We're all very familiar with text, since we read and write it every day. Here we will treat text as raw data for the programs we write, programs that manipulate and analyze it in a variety of interesting ways. But before we can do this, we have to get started with the Python interpreter.

1. Language Processing and Python

If you read through , you will glean the information required to answer the example question. But how do we get a machine to understand enough about to return the answers in 1.2? This is obviously a much harder task. Unlike 1.1, contains no structure that links organization names with location names.. One approach to this problem involves building a very general representation of meaning

7. Extracting Information from Text

Exams are an essential way to measure our schools and abilities, giving others confidence in what we can or can't do.
