If you like Sherlock Homes, as in the books, movies, TV adaptations, you'll like this book. While it was the relationship between Mycroft and Watts that really made EVERY BREATH stand out to me, there are a lot of other things going on that only made my enjoyment of Ellie Marney's book greater, and one of those things are the secondary characters. I particularly adored Rachel's brother, Mike, and her best friend, Mai.

This book was gifted to me from my lovely friend, Kristen over at My Friends Are Fiction. I probably wouldn't have picked up this book on my own or even heard about it if it weren't for her.
