Freedom's Dawn was a return to boring and a drag like the Rings of Haven was. It was Okay at the beginning, drags and makes you angry in the middle, and wins you over yet again at the end. The entire Frontiers Saga reads like a TV mini series. I just finished Episode 1 of Part 2 and was devastated to discover the next episode isn't in stock yet. The writing style is very exacting but tedious at times, I don't know how many times the effects of the "jump" needed to be described, once or twice would have been enough.
