I really don't care about Jack of fables, I find him and his story totally uninteresting and completely unrelated with rest of volume 6. Alone I would give it 1.5-2 stars. Luckily it was short enough. Main story follows Boy blue and his trip to the homelands and we finally see who is the Adversary and I kind of expected more, it was all bit ...

Fables Vol. 6: Homelands: Homelands - Volume 6, Book by ...

Volume 6 opens up with Jack's adventures after leaving Fabletown in the previous volume, which includes a stint in Hollywood. This is an entertaining little story that is clearly a precursor for the spin-off series about Jack that followed shortly after this (and will probably be a fun read that I will try to get to after I'm done with the main Fables series).
