Freefall Mindi Scott

Freefall by Mindi Scott is an absolute brilliant debut novel that's honest, funny, sad and hopeful all rolled up into one captivating book. I expected this novel to be depressing and to be honest was a little reserved about diving into it at first. But then Seth started sharing his story, and I couldn't ignore him even if I tried.

Freefall by Mindi Scott - Goodreads

" Highlighting the dark (and yet acutely relevant) side of high school today, Scott brings to the table heavy issues that are impacting teens with a storyline that reads as real as life itself. With characters that ring true and a journey that proves honest, Freefall is no doubt sure to be one of the best contemporary young adult books of the ...

Mindi Scott's Freefall was such a surprise. I read it because it was included as part of The Contemps reading challenge (a challenge to read 21 books by young adult authors that deal with real life issues), and this was one of only two that have been released (most come out in 2011). The book description makes it sound like a simple young adult ...

FREEFALL is a heartwarming, exceptional novel with a vivid taste of real life - the great and the not-so-great. Mindi Scott's prose is contemporary and believable, just like the story she tells in this book is. The characters' depth is fantastic, which is key to FREEFALL because - to me - it is driven by its characters more than anything else.

"In a genre overloaded with bubble-gum-pink teendom and paranormal dark fantasy full of fangs and fur, Mindi Scott's debut novel Freefall stands out as fresh, realistic, young adult fiction.

Highlighting the dark (and yet acutely relevant) side of high school today, Scott brings to the table heavy issues that are impacting teens with a ...
