Front And Center Dairy Queen

After gobbling the Dairy Queen series up as fast as I possibly could, I'm now a little heartbroken that it's over. Front and Center was a fantastic ending and just as good as the first two installments. D.J. thinks that things are about to go back to normal for her, but boy is she wrong. I can't think of a better ending to such a incredible series.

Dairy Queen Series by Catherine Gilbert Murdock - Goodreads

One of my favorite series of books is wrapping up with the final episode, Front and Center, in a couple of weeks. Catherine Gilbert Murdock's Dairy Queen series has been a very quiet set of books, receiving fewer nods than it deserves, but I think this final book may in fact help establish this as ...

Front And Center (2009) About book: This series just got better and better. Far from a cutsie YA trilogy, the books were filled with real-life meaning. DJ Schwenk is such a unique narrator. I love her voice. I love her take on life and I love the central meaning of the book. Courage doesn't mean doing something and not being afraid.
