Fault Line Robert Goddard

Robert Goddard is one of my favorite authors. He is a great storyteller and always has clever plots and interesting characters. Lots of plot twists keep the pages turning. Fault line deals with family and business secrets and missing documents and is set in Cornwall and Italy and switches back and forth from the present to the 1960's.

Not all scars are visible. Jonathan Kellaway needs no reminding of that on the verge of his retirement from china clay conglomerate Intercontinental Kaolins. The company has left its mark in pits and spoil heaps around the world. But it has also left a no less enduring mark on some of those who have worked for it, Kellaway included. Its past, as well as its future, is a treacherous place.
