Lisa's books draw on her experience as a trial lawyer and Everywhere That Mary Went is the first — and best — example. The novel is the story of an associate in a prestigious Philadelphia law firm much like the one Lisa practiced in. Everywhere That Mary Went was nominated by the Mystery Writers of America for an Edgar Award, the equivalent of an Academy Award in the suspense business.

Everywhere That Mary Went - Lisa Scottoline

Everywhere That Mary Went is book one in the Rosato and associates series by Lisa Scottoline. This book follows a lawyer with the titular name of Mary as unforeseen events happen to and around her. It is this cloud that surrounds the story because the reader finds things out almost about the same time our muse does.
