In summary, if given infinite resources and time there may be a tentative solution to every problem. That does not imply that the solution won't create new problems nor that every solution can be effectively checked/implemented. A solution that itself takes infinite resources or time is not by any means feasible.

Does every problem have a solution? - Quora

There is a solution to every problem. Problems serve as feedbacks that enable success to be achieved. Problems contribute to the learning process of attaining a desirable end. In fact, many a successful man will admit that every problem is an opportunity. It however depends very much on one's perception.
