These women lived the “and” and showed that you can be intense and warm, serious and hard-charging and ambitious and caring and funny. The flat-screen view of women so common in our popular imagination has always overshadowed its richer and far more layered reality. For women's lives have always had the “and” at their center.

The power of “and”: How women can be fierce and feminine

Characteristics of a beautifully fierce woman: She walks in confidence and humility that flow from her recognition of Christ's work of grace in her life. She has the power to influence and inspire because she lives under the Spirit's control. God wants us to use these characteristics to fulfill His calling on our lives.
