Fatherland by Robert Harris, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Fatherland was Robert Harris' bestselling debut. The interest in it is perfectly understandable; it promises an intriguing combination of a murder mystery in the fascinating setting of post-War Berlin – where Germany has won the war. A body has washed up on a riverbank near Berlin, Germany. It is soon identified as Josef Bühler, a...

"Fatherland" is my favorite of all of Robert Harris's novels. The world he creates is chilling believable, perfectly rendered, and utterly terrifying. I can't recommend this novel highly enough. I read it when it first came out. Recently I reordered it (having lost my original copy by loaning it to a friend) .
